Special Education Complaint Process

CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

1430 N STREET
SACRAMENTO, CA
95814-5901

What is a complaint?

A complaint alleges that there has been a failure to implement a federal or state special education law or regulation by a public education agency.

Public education agency means a district, special education local plan area (SELPA), county office, or any public agency providing special education or related services to students (Education Code Section 56500).

Who is the complaint process for?

The complaint process is available for any student who has been referred, assessed, or identified for special education services.

Who may file a complaint?

Anyone who believes that there has been a violation of special education law or regulations may file a complaint. This includes parents, school staff, organizations, and other interested parties. Site administrators and special education staff can assist in filing the complaint.

What information must be in the complaint?

The complaint should describe the problem and include all the information needed to support the allegation or complaint.

Is there a process for resolving complaints locally?

Yes, under most circumstances the complaint may be resolved at the local level by contacting your child's teacher, principal, or special education administrator.

Where do I send complaints?

You may send your complaint in writing to:

California Department of Education (CDE)
Special Education Division (SED)
Procedural Safeguards Referral Service
1430 N Street, Suite 2401
Sacramento, CA 95814-5901

When filing a complaint, you must forward a copy of the complaint to the public education agency at the same time you file a compliance complaint with the CDE.

How long does it take to resolve the complaint?

The state-level investigation and final report must be completed within 60 days of CDE receiving the complaint unless an extension is granted due to exceptional circumstances. The final report may contain a timeline for resolving the problem.

Understanding other special education terms

The individualized education program (IEP) is a written statement for a child with a disability that describes the child's unique needs and specifies his or her instructional program, including special education and related services.

Due process for students in special education is a procedure to use when there is a disagreement between the parents and the education agency regarding assessment, identification, or placement of a student. All requests for a due process hearing must be in writing to:
