A problem well stated is a problem half solved.

Charles F. Kettering

A problem clearly stated is a problem half solved.

Dorothea Brande

There are no big problems; there are just a lot of little problems.

Henry Ford

The significant problems we face today cannot be solved at the same level of thinking we were at when we created them.

Albert Einstein

Never let a problem to be solved become more important than the person to be loved.

Barbara Johnson

He has a right to criticize, who has a heart to help.

Abraham Lincoln

The important thing about a problem is not its solution, but the strength we gain in finding the solution.

Anonymous

No problem can withstand the assault of sustained thinking.

Voltaire

It is characteristic of all deep human problems that they are not to be approached without some humor and some bewilderment.

Freeman Dyson

If a man can see both sides of a problem, you know that none of his money is tied up in it.

Verda Ross

When I'm working on a problem, I never think about beauty. I think only how to solve the problem. But when I have finished, if the solution is not beautiful, I know it is wrong.

R. Buckminster Fuller

It isn't that they can't see the solution. It's that they can't see the problem.

G. K. Chesterton

The problems of the world cannot possibly be solved by skeptics or cynics whose horizons are limited by the obvious realities. We need men who can dream of things that never were.

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

If we can really understand the problem, the answer will come out of it, because the answer is not separate from the problem.

Jiddu Krishnamurti

There are very few personal problems that cannot be solved through a suitable application of high explosives.

Scott Adams

For every problem there is a solution which is simple, clean and wrong.

Henry Louis Mencken
